

Affirm the following sentences:

Great Father of the Cosmos,
King of the Heavens,
Bearer of the Bolt, Weaver of the Universe,
You who transcends Time and Space—
You who pervades all consciousness and Life, both existing and yet to come.

Father of Fathers, Deyus Pater,
You who exists everywhere and within all things.
You are the Ultimate, the Truth, the All—
That which Is, Was, and Ever Will Be.

We approach You humbly,
O Greatest King of Kings.
You are invoked by the Assembly of the Temple of Zeus,
As we prostrate ourselves before Your Eternity,
Before Your boundless Knowledge and infinite Wisdom.

Hear us, truly.

Vibrate the following 10 times each: DEUS PATAR, ZEFS, DIAS [DEE-AS], and ZINA [ZEE-Nah].

Then affirm:

DI, DIA, DEU, DEYA, DEYA, DEYDI, PATER PATAR, ZEFS, ZINA!

O Zeus, You who gathers and unites all things.
O Dias, You who divides and severs as required, who decides the fates of Gods and Men.

Trine are the Names of Power before which we prostrate ourselves.
We follow Your Divine Dictates.
Bless us and uphold us, Your Children and Initiates.

Vibrate IU-PATAR 10 times and affirm:

O Lord Jupiter of Rome, it is You who brings Victory, for You are Invictus.
Blessed is Your Victory, and blessed are we in being victorious,
For the Romans believed in You, and they were blessed with great power.

Now vibrate AMUN 10 times [with your eyes closed], then ATUM 10 times [with your eyes open], and affirm:

In Egypt, we behold Your magnificence, O Great One, whom they call Atum.
You created Yourself—arising from the Eternal—
Bringing forth Eternity itself.

Vibrate EOSFOROS and SATANAMA 10 times each.

Then affirm:

A, SAT, SATANAMA, SATANAS, SAT, A!

For centuries, the sons of error have called You Satan and Lucifer—
Names meaning Eternal Truth and Bringer of Light, which they did not understand.

You sat upon Your Throne and took care of humanity.
As humanity lost its way and inverted its path,
You set them straight by inverting yourself to lead the pious and wise to enlightenment in the falling Age.

You remained with humanity as an eternal symbol, never departing from our conscience [unless this word is used deliberately, it's common to conflate conscience with "consciousness" – unless the feeling of right and wrong is meant here, "consciousness" is more fitting.] or presence,

And Your Will has been thus:

"Let those who do not corrupt themselves in the Age of the Fallen Reach Me through the form of the Fallen—so that they might Rise."

You sat upon the Eternal Throne,
Bestowing Knowledge and Wisdom from the Throne of the Darkness during the Dark Age of Man, which is now passing.

Wherever You appear, in any form,
You bring Wisdom, Blessings, and Triumph.

Vibrate BAAL-ZEVULON x10 Times.

Then utter once: B, AB, BA, BAAL, BAALZEBUL, BAALZEVULON, BAALZEBUL, BAAL, BA, AB, B!

*The Initiates uttered your Name, Baalzevul, You who ~~was~~ was called the "Devil",
The misguided folk of the unenlightened, you still set them upon the Eternal Path.
For the misguided have created the Age of Fall, which you shall remove and replace with the Age of Wisdom, with force mighty and transformative against those who have erred in your Name; for you are the Great God of Thunder, The Baal of Baal's [just a note here in case the change eludes the eyes due to being small – the apostrophe is unnecessary here] and the King of Kings – your people love you and adore you in this form also.
For You, O Beelzebul, is the Master of the Universe, who Rules All in All,
Satan is the Rebellion against the wrongful rule, against the impious,
The Devil is the ability to perceive and think; ~~whom~~ -> which you, Great God have bestowed upon us,
And Lucifer is the striking bolt of your Wisdom that shines forth like lightning.*

And we relished in the revelation of your power and mysteries.

Strongest and mightiest, brightest and most supreme, you are He that is unfathomable and beyond all measures.*

Follow the instructions listed below:

NOW YOU MUST NOT VIBRATE, BUT SIT IN COMPLETE SILENCE FOR 1 MINUTE, meditating solely on the void in your mind. Close your eyes and meditate on the void of your mind, and keep it as empty as possible.
Silence here is seen as the ultimate form of fellowship with our God.

Follow the instructions listed below:

After the Silence, break it and say one time: I-A-O-E [EE-AA-OO-EE]

---

After this, come out of this state and utter the end of the Ritual.

Utter this Line: “In every voice, heard or unheard, you exist. Such is your Mystery and your perfect revelation. We prostrate ourselves in your Truth and your Eternity. Lead us!”

Then continue with your Prayer.

*As we prostrate ourselves in this Grand Ritual,
We pray that you uphold us in the Path,*

*Bless us with courage, health, riches, spiritual enlightenment, and True Guidance.
For we in the Temple of Zeus are your People that bring you forth,
And the heralds of the Golden Age, all in our lots and all in our missions,
But all as One, we shall Revere you, o Greatest One,
May your Kingdom of Humanity, Gods and Daemons be blessed,
In the upper world, in the middle world and in the underworld.
We prostrate ourselves, bless us with your love and blessing and be a benefactor to us all.
We hail You, Eternal One.*

Close the Ritual by vibrating these series of vowels: IAOE, IAUEO, IAOA, IA IA, IA ZEFS, IA, IAUEO!

LEGEND:

In short, the colors also show how sure I am about a given change. These are, in descending order:

Green is for changes I am all but 100% sure on, whether it be in terms of grammar/syntax/spelling (I am always 100% sure on this) and also in terms of intention (slightly less than 100% sure on this).

This is mostly small, single-letter changes as well as some punctuation for the purposes of making for the smoothest, most fluent reading and intend-ing experience. I also made sure to look for precedent where appropriate (such as checking to see if the rules for second or third person singular verb agreement (presence or lack of the suffix of -s with second or third person pronouns) are obeyed or disobeyed consistently – if it's obeyed anywhere within the same ritual, I made changes to make it obeyed everywhere).

Orange is for changes I am still sure on the proper writing of, but am not sure should be changed because these feel like they could be deliberately worded/written that way. This also includes some determiners (in particular, adding the in some places).

Red is for only one thing in the whole Ritual; Lighting to Lightning. This is also a common spelling error (hence why I point it out); however, the part of the prayer right after that (shining and burning) leaves me unsure and I do not want to make an error in my pursuit of perfection in the rituals to our beloved Gods.

If requested, I can offer further explanation for any of these changes. Please know that all of it is thought over.
